CONCURRENT MASTER'S DEGREES

Concurrent enrollment in more than one graduate degree program is only permitted with the approval of the Directors of Graduate Studies for both degree programs. A maximum of nine hours can be shared between master's degree programs. Fill in the master's degree programs in the first and third columns and list all of the courses to be taken for each degree program. List the shared courses in the middle column. Any changes in the courses listed must be approved by the Directors of Graduate Studies and reported to the Graduate School. This form is not required for students enrolled in one master's program and doctoral program simultaneously.
