Sub-awards: A Survivors Guide of Key Concepts and Principles

This broadcast is intended as a review for mid-level research administrators and will provide enough basic information to help those who are new to the world of subcontracting to – survive! The faculty will share a number of case studies, discuss the Do's and Don'ts and dispel myths that may have been creating high anxiety to those new to this arena.

Faculty will touch on the following areas:

- * Key concepts and terminology associated with subawards
- * Factors to consider when issuing a sub-award
- * Terms and Conditions – do they all “flow down”?
- * Administering sub-awards
- * An overview of the typical flow of activity
- * Elements of a sub-award
- * Basic principles of sub-award negotiation

Moderator:

David Mayo, Associate Director, Office of Sponsored Research, California Institute of Technology

Faculty:

Steve Erickson, Director, Office for Research Compliance and Intellectual Property Management, Boston College; / Ruth Farrell, Associate Vice President for Research Administration, University of Vermont / Nancy Daneau, Associate Director of Research Administration Training and Institutional Liaison, Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Research, New York University
